

Zollverein School of Management and Design, Hall 12

Workshop 01.11.-05.11.2004 |

„re-materialized | recycled materials and their use in space“

Monday, 01.11.2004

16.00 Welcome by Prof. Dr. R. Bruder and Susanne Lengyel
Presentation of the theme in detail (briefing and aim)
Introduction of participating schools and what have they done so far...

18.30 Dinner

Tuesday, 02.11.2004

9.00 Introduction by Jette Joop
Christian Brand and Meng Meng Tu, University of Essen
Presentation „What can be recycled“

10.00 Eckard Foltin, Head of the Creative Center at Bayer MaterialScience
As Head of the Creative Center, Foltin is responsible for the systematic discovery and development of new applications for Bayer MaterialScience products

11.00 Prof. Ursula Tischner, Designer and director of „econcept“, Cologne co-operation with Wuppertal Institut for climate, environment, energy, teaching at the Bergische Universität Wuppertal, Fachhochschule Wedel and the Hochschule der Künste Berlin

Wednesday, 03.11.2004

9.00 Andrew Bollinger, EPEA Hamburg
EPEA is a scientific research institute that focuses on improving product quality, utility, and environmental performance via Eco-effectiveness.

16.00 Guided Tour through Zeche Zollverein

Thursday, 04.11.2004

afternoon visit of the Duke of Edinburgh, HRH Prince Philip

Friday, 05.11.2004

9.00 Preparation of exhibition

14.00 Exhibition has to be put up

19.00 Opening of exhibition

20.00 Get-together party

Zollverein School of management and design

Zollverein School of Management and Design, Hall 12

Workshop 01.11.-05.11.2004 |

„re-materialized | recycled materials and their use in space“

Ravensbourne College of Design and Communicatio, London

1 teacher

8 students

Rietveld Akademie, Amsterdam

3 teachers

17 students

ISIA, Istituto Superiore Per Le Industrie Artistiche Rome

1 teacher

4 students

Domus Academy Mailand

2 students

Bergische Universität Wuppertal

2 students

Universität Duisburg-Essen

8 students

in total

41 students

5 teachers

Jette Joop